A few steps from home and once again we find a new side of Verona:

MEDIEVAL VERONA

A city contested between the Venice Republic and the Visconti of Milan. We can still imagine what life would have been at the Court of the Scaligeri: Their castle, the Royal Palace, the Government Palace, the Lamberti Towers and picturesque Piazze delle Erbe

DINNER WITH OUR ROTARY HOSTS

The Scaligeri Castle
The Medieval Bridge, towers and squares where life was played out between 1250 – 1350
These are the city's loveliest
Piazas
